Abstract:

The global spread of COVID-19 has posed a serious threat to the safety of life and property of people all over the world. This severe test reflects the lack of ecological civilization literacy of citizens nowadays. At present, the ecological civilization consciousness of Chinese citizens has made some achievements, but we have to face up to the existing problems and reasons in the cultivation of ecological civilization consciousness of Chinese citizens, in order to better promote the ecological civilization consciousness of Chinese citizens, so as to promote the construction of Wild China.

Key words: citizen, consciousness of Ecological Civilization, Wild China
