

Tang Dingding: Finance can empower biodiversity conservation

Author: Tang Dingding

Abstract:

In his speech, Mr. Tang Dingding pointed out that the definition of 30*30 is unclear. $700 billion finance gap lacks clear calculation and channel. Therefore, a reportable and measurable supporting system that can generate consensus coordinate global targets. Not only in drylands, but all governments and organizations should come up better strategy to mobilize fund and to protect biodiversity.

Key words: Post 2020 Global Biodiversity Framework; generate consensus, coordinate global target, drylands, mobilize fund
